

Today's Dirty Dozen – What to do when LLC is over for the day

12 Things (OK, 16 Things) to do during the conference weekend when you're not listening to great programs or keynote addresses.

Friday, April 11

Atlanta LLC-13 Party (in the hotel)

Once the opening ceremonies are over, get ready to network and have some fun at the Atlanta party. Come meet the folks who will be bringing you lucky LLC 13. All we can say is that last year's party in Minnesota brought the police. Good party. Great people.

Men's Play Party (at The Citadel) – Look for the flyer in your registration bag.

SF's premier dungeon hosts a monthly men's only party; this month it just happens to fall on LLC weekend, you lucky guys! The Citadel is going to give LLC attendees FREE weekend membership (a $10 value) if you bring your registration badge. These parties are fun, hot, sweaty and a fun thing to do while in town. There's a men's fisting party-within-the-party in the front alcove. There are 4 slings, a bench and a medical exam table for your use. Nice low lights, good music and all the paper towels, pads, gloves and condoms are provided. Last time there were more tops than bottoms!!!

Men only, sorry non-males. Start sweating now 'cause it's gonna be hot.

Saturday, April 12

Citadel Open Play Party

Citadel is SF's premier dungeon and on Saturday night it's a "Society of Janus" takeover, welcoming LLC attendees. The Citadel is going to give LLC attendees free weekend membership (a $10 value) if you bring your registration badge. Come see the dungeon that has some of the best equipment and environment you've experienced.

Look for a flyer in your registration packets for all the details. SOJ reciprocal organization members can save even more (see the flyer!).

Powerhouse

Saturday nights are off the hook at Powerhouse, one of SF's kinkiest bars. The event on April 12 is called "Hooker" and to find out more, visit the website. Hook this:

Marlena's

For all those gender-bending thoughts and for just a fucking laugh out loud night, you can't do better than Marlena's Follies. All genders are welcome, but ladies, hold onto your bras – they have a way of leaving bodies at this event: www.marlenasbarsf.com/

Paint Party (at Edges in the south bay)

Liquid Latex, Erotic Body Painting and more. Finger (paint) your partner. Cover the world at: www.edges.biz

Castro Theatre

One of the funkiest, most fun and eclectic movie theatres in the county, the Castro Theatre in the Castro (duh) has a fun filled weekend with the Epidemic Film Fest on Friday night, a Jazz and Silent Fest on Saturday and a double feature on Sunday. Don't miss any LLC programming, but this is something for you film fans: <http://www.castrotheatre.com/p-list.html>

Writers with Drinks (at the Make-Out Room)

Writers. Drink. Erotica with literature, stand-up comedy with science fiction and poetry with essays. Nuf said. www.writerswithdrinks.com

Sunday, April 13

Kinky Flea Market

One of the longest running traditions in the SF kink world is Lady Thorn's Kinky Flea Market (at Citadel) 2-5pm. Local artisans bring their goods, kinky folks clean out their closets, authors show up to sign books. If you can swing it, a great place to pick up gear for a lot less than you pay at retail – the same damn stuff in many cases. Go, buy. <http://www.smflea.com/>

Beer Bust

What would a SF weekend be without an Eagle Beer Bust? This one is sponsored by the Satyrs Motorcycle Club. Come, cruise, get blown. You know. <http://www.sfeagle.com/>

Fandango Party (at the Citadel)

As the Bay Area's longest running party, Fandango trips the light fantastic. If you are still here on Sunday night and don't want to put up with the crowd on Saturday, come put up with the crowd on Sunday. Ha! Same stuff applies to LLC attendees – you get free weekend membership with your badge.

Fandango (at Citadel) 8 pm – 1 am

RESPECT at Harry Denton's Rouge

Corner of Polk St. and Broadway (walking distance from the Hotel)

Page Hodel (S.F.'s hottest woman D.J. for 20 years) holds her 2nd Sunday of the month tribute to the middle aged women...R&B, Disco, Old School, and Hip Hop. Women from 21 to 70 having a BLAST. Come out and dance with no partner necessary.

(Note: Bernice, your LLC Hospitality Chair has a booth reserved on the dance floor).

Come have fun! Questions? Check in with Bernice over the weekend (she has a Local Organizer's badge and is hard to miss!)

Sunday 4 to 9 PM

Sundance Saloon 10th Anniversary Party

Sunday, April 13

5:00-10:30pm (with CW dance lessons 5:30-7:15pm)

Two-stepping and line dancing

Entertainment

Souvenirs

Sundance Saloon, San Francisco's country-western dance venue, celebrates it's 10th anniversary on Sunday, April 13. For a decade Sundance Saloon has thrived as an all-volunteer nonprofit community-based venue. Now hundreds of cowboys and cowgirls descend on this San Francisco institution every Sunday and Thursday. Of special note is that Sundance Saloon, itself a 501c3 nonprofit, has raised over $150,000 for other nonprofit organizations over the past ten years. This celebration is dedicated to the hundreds of volunteers and donors who made Sundance Saloon such a success story. FREE ADMISSION

550 Barneveld Ave., San Francisco (near Bayshore/Industrial)

Any day over the weekend:

Chaps II SF

The newest Leather Bar (opened 4/4/08)

1225 Folsom Street (yes, that Folsom St) btw 8th and 9th

Chaps II SF is the newest leather bar in San Francisco and welcomes leather folks of all shapes, sizes, orientations and persuasions. Below is an article from the SF Chron that talks about the opening.

Get a Cherry

Even with global warming, there will always be a Cherry Blossom Festival. Not kinky, but no one in SF will bar you if you show up in full leathers if you are respectful. Great for something totally different. And what's not great about anything cherry.

Brought to you as a kinky public service from the folks who are bringing you Leather Leadership Conference 12.

Special thanks to JimH from the South Bay for his wonderful contributions.

AROUSE!
